

Action Plan for The Study Tour Programme: May 26th –June 4th in Mexico

Name of the Participant: Md. Abu Bakar Siddique

Designation: Program Officer

Organisation: National Human Rights Commission.

Country: Bangladesh.

General Objectives of the Study Tour:

The proposed study tour to Mexico and its' potential benefits of this form of participatory culture including opportunities for peer-to – peer learning, will change attitude toward human rights not only inside me but also in the future approach going to be taken by me as well. The diversification of cultural expression, the development of skills valued in the modern workplace and a more empowered conception of human rights will be some other probable gains from this tour. Thus after being exposed to such an important opportunity, the lack of multifaceted and cross cultural experience in dealing with the human rights issues in the context of Bangladesh will be reduced in good quantity with the enhanced first -hand experience likely to gain from the tour.

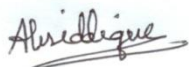

Specific actions to be taken way back Home:

Developing holistic human rights based approach inside me as well as encouraging other relevant actors and thereby supporting the state as well as my institution to identify the proper approach to all under its jurisdiction in strengthening democratic governance in the country will be few first steps from my part. I strongly believe throughout my professional career, advocacy for human rights by sensitizing all stakeholders will automatically forge me to contribute and improve the human rights situation in my country. A brief presentation on the study tour will be made for the stuffs of the National Human Rights Commission, Bangladesh in order to convey my experiences likely to gain from the tour.
